Prizes for All.

There are so many liberal prizes offered by THE WASHINGTON HERALD that nearly every one who enters this contest will be more than rewarded for his or her efforts. See that your nomination is sent in to-day. Then interest your friends. Tell them that you are out to win. THE WASHINGTON HERALD has done its part—the rest is for you and your friends.

Each district represented is separate and distinct in itself, and the number of votes cast for candidates in one district has no bearing whatever upon the number of votes cast for candidates in other districts, except so far as the capital prizes are concerned. Each candidate who secures the largest number of votes in EACH of the different districts at the close of the contest is assured of at least a handsome reward.

Receipt books and advertising matter will be sent candidates upon request.

Candidates may be nominated and voted for at any time up to the very last day of the race.

All votes issued on subscriptions are good until the end of the race, and may be polled or withheld at the discretion of candidates or subscribers.

In sending money in payment of subscriptions to THE WASHINGTON HERALD make all forms of remittances payable to THE WASHINGTON HERALD—not to individuals. Cash must accompany every order where votes are to be issued.

ACTIVE VOTING BEGINS TO-DAY.

DISTRICT PRIZES:

8 Pianos, Valued at $450 each
8 Bedroom Suites, Valued at $75 each
8 Solid Gold Watches, Valued at $35 each
Besides 18 Other Prizes.

The Office of the Contest Manager

IS ON THE THIRD FLOOR OF THE WASHINGTON HERALD BUILDING, 734 FIFTEENTH STREET. If you are interested in this contest and want to get started right, come up and get acquainted, or call up by telephone and state what you desire to know, or ask for suggestions. Any inquiries addressed to the Contest Manager will receive prompt attention. The next time you are down town drop into this department and let the Manager of the Contest explain the details of the plan and how easy it is to win a Grand Prize—the beautiful house and lot, an automobile, a valuable building lot, a trip to Europe, or other valuable reward. Phone 3300. Ask for the Contest Department.

OUR THIRD GRAND PRIZE.

THE COLUMBIA VICTORIA.
In selecting the Columbia, we choose the car in most general use. The Columbia Victoria outnumbers all other makes combined. Purchased from the Dupont Garage Company, 2020 M street northwest.

WHO MAY ENTER THIS CONTEST.

Any person, man or woman, married or single, girl or boy, is eligible to compete, providing the conditions set forth are complied with:

The Contest Manager reserves the right to reject any nominations.

Every candidate must be regularly nominated in writing on the blank printed in this paper or a similar blank furnished by The Washington Herald.

Candidates must reside in the District or Territory from which nominated. No candidate will be permitted to transfer votes to another after receiving them for themselves.

Ballots sent in for names not properly nominated will be destroyed uncounted.

A ballot will be printed in The Washington Herald from time to time, and when properly filled out and mailed to the Contest Department, will be good for the number of votes printed thereon, provided they are sent in before the expiration date.

All ballots must be neatly trimmed or they will be rejected as informal. Postage must be fully prepaid or they will be rejected at the post-office, hence not counted.

No employee or a member of an employee's family of The Washington Herald can be a contestant in this contest.

Any question that may arise will be determined by the Contest Manager of The Washington Herald, and his decision will be final and conclusive.

All paid-in-advance subscriptions, five weeks or longer, must be sent direct to the Contest Department of The Washington Herald, and on receipt of remittance special ballots will be issued.

Special ballots are provided to carry with them additional voting value, according to the amount paid by a NEW or OLD subscriber, and the length of the subscription.

No protest as to the eligibility of any candidate will be considered if votes have been cast for said candidate for a period of ten days.

The Washington Herald reserves the right to alter any conditions pertaining to this contest if so desires, other than reducing the prizes that are to be given away, and the order in which they will be won.

The contest will be open this morning at 9 a. m., March 27, and will close at 12 o'clock midnight, Saturday, July 3, 1909.

In case of a tie for any of the prizes offered by The Washington Herald each candidate will receive prizes of equal value.

Contestants that live in one district are not prevented from securing subscriptions or votes in any other district, as votes will be allowed on any prepaid subscriptions secured anywhere in the United States. If an order for a subscription is sent with the money, votes will be issued in favor of any contestant that the writer may designate and returned to the subscriber or mailed to the contestant if so desired.

To secure the special vote ballots, all money must be sent direct to The Washington Herald Contest Department by the contestants or their friends, as votes will only be issued at The Washington Herald office.

Any person wishing to withdraw from the contest must write us personally, as no telephone message will be considered.

In accepting nominations all candidates must accept and agree to abide by all above conditions.
